

Cadet Applicant,

The Azusa Police Department is excited to welcome applicants to the Azusa Cadet program to uphold department values, educate and train future law enforcement Officers, and develop young adults into ethical and confident community leaders. Cadets are expected to uphold a strong moral character at Cadet meetings/ functions in addition to home, work, and school.

Complete the attached application by printing it and filling it out by hand in either blue or black ink. This application needs to be completed by you, the applicant, and not a friend or parent. Once you have completed this application either return it to the Azusa Police department lobby during business hours, or email it to cadets@Azusaca.gov. If you email it please title the email subject as "last name cadet application." For example (Smith Cadet Application.)

After receiving your application, a cadet, Post advisor will review it to ensure that you are eligible to participate in the program and contact you to schedule an oral interview. You will then receive additional instructions to prepare you for the oral interview.

We look forward to helping you with the beginning of your law enforcement journey. Please email cadets@azusaca.gov with any questions you may have.

With best regards,

Your Azusa Police Cadet Advisors
